Aflac Voluntary Plans

Aflac Voluntary Critical Illness Plan

You can elect the Aflac Critical Illness Plan to protect you or a covered family member if you are diagnosed and treated for cancer. You can also add an optional Specified Health Event to your policy for illnesses related to strokes, heart attack, end-stage renal failure and sudden cardiac arrest. This plan also rewards you for staying well by offering you cash benefits when you receive annual preventative tests such as mammograms, colonoscopy, and PSA exams.

Aflac Voluntary Personal Accident

The plans pay you cash directly to the insured or family member for the treatment of accidental injury on or off the job, 24/7 anywhere in the world. Benefits are paid for Emergency Treatment, Follow-up Visits, Physical Therapy, Hospitalization, Transportation and Lodging, Major Diagnostic Exams like MRI, CT, AD&D rider, and much more!

Keep in mind that your contributions for the Aflac plans are made with pre-tax dollars.
