

The Journal of Baccalaureate Social Work (JBSW) is currently seeking dedicated professionals to join our esteemed panel of reviewers. As an essential part of our peer-review process, reviewers play a crucial role in ensuring the quality and integrity of the articles published in our journal. Please feel free to forward this email to others who you feel are interested and qualified.

How to Apply:

If you are interested in becoming a reviewer, please submit the following information to the editor-in-chief, Dr. Dawn Apgar at dawn.apgar@shu.edu

About JBSW:

The Journal of Baccalaureate Social Work (JBSW) is a leading scholarly publication dedicated to advancing research, theory, and practice in the field of baccalaureate social work education. Our journal provides a platform for academics, practitioners, and researchers to share innovative ideas, best practices, and empirical findings that contribute to the advancement of social work education and practice.

Reviewer Responsibilities:

- Conduct thorough and constructive peer reviews of submitted manuscripts within agreed-upon timelines.
- Assess the quality, originality, and significance of research articles.
- Provide detailed feedback and recommendations to authors to enhance the clarity, rigor, and relevance of their work.
- Uphold the highest standards of confidentiality and integrity in the peer-review process.

Benefits of Reviewing for JBSW:

- Contribute to the advancement of knowledge and scholarship in baccalaureate social work education.
- Stay informed about the latest developments and trends in the field.
- Gain valuable experience in peer review and scholarly publishing.
- Receive recognition for your expertise and contributions to the academic community.

Please send an email with a CV which includes your full name and affiliation, a brief summary of your expertise and experience in baccalaureate social work education, any relevant publications or scholarly contributions, and your contact information, including email and phone number.

Thank you for your interest in serving as a reviewer. We look forward to welcoming passionate and dedicated individuals to our reviewer panel.