

SERVICE PROGRAM FOR OLDER PEOPLE

JOB POSTING
LMSW/LCSW CLINICIAN - FULL-TIME

SPOP is seeking a bilingual LMSW or LCSW clinician to provide individual and group psychotherapy and engagement activities at our outpatient clinic satellite locations. Services are currently offered on site and via telehealth. No evenings, weekends or after-hours coverage required.

The LMSW/LCSW clinician will report to the Assistant Director for Community Programs and works closely with the Senior VP for Community Programs. The individual in this position will provide services to Spanish-speaking clients and participants at two older adult centers (OACs) located in Upper Manhattan.

The successful candidate has strong clinical skills, experience using an electronic health record, and experience with or interest in working with older adults. Candidates must hold an active New York State license to practice social work. Fluency in Spanish is required.

Compensation is $68,000 plus a comprehensive benefits package, including ample paid time off; medical, dental and vision insurance; employer contribution to retirement plan; and flexible spending account. SPOP offers reimbursement for trainings and licensure along with extensive supervisory and educational opportunities, including clinical consultation, individual and group supervision, and on-the job CE credits.

Service Program for Older People (SPOP) is a nationally-recognized leader at the intersection of mental health and aging. SPOP provides award-winning therapeutic services for adults ages 55+ throughout New York City. Visit www.spop.org to learn more.
