October 7th Resources for Schools and Educators

As we approach the new year, and look forward to our school and communal celebrations of the holidays, we are all too aware of the anniversary of the horrific events of last Simchat Torah, and the reality that so many in our extended Jewish family continue to suffer loss, trauma, and uncertainty. Below are some resources that schools may find helpful. If Azrieli faculty can be of any assistance as you navigate these challenging times, please reach out to us.

World Jewish Congress

Oct 7, 2024 09:00 EST

Join the World Jewish Congress family as we mark one year since the tragic events of October 7 and mourn those we have lost. We will also pay tribute to the brave men and women of Israel who have dedicated themselves to confronting Hamas and its reign of terror.
