

Social Worker or Social Services Professional (Part-Time).

Project Open, a small non-profit agency that provides essential supportive services to older adults living in Lincoln Towers on Manhattan's Upper West Side, seeks a Social Worker or Social Services Professional for a part-time position (4 days/wk).

Duties include:

conducting client needs assessments, providing supportive counseling, leading groups, making service referrals to a variety of city agencies, and supporting social and recreational activities.

The successful candidate must be a self-starter, must have good tech skills, and must demonstrate a desire to work with an older adult population.

Preference will be given to candidates who have an MSW and who have experience working with older adults.

Salary range is $40-50,000 depending on degrees and experience. Health benefits are negotiable.
